

BRUCE STEPHAN BENNETT

5000 Spring Creek Road
Knoxville, Tennessee 37920
615-579-1315

Born: Blytheville, Arkansas 1950

B.S. Psychology Florida State University 1972

Bruce Bennett is a sculptor who has worked in wood, lacquered wood, marble, granite, neon and stone to make furniture, garden benches, and free-standing sculptural art. Over the period 1990-1993 Bennett established a professional stone working shop with three employees, specializing in the production of furniture and sculpture. Projects include custom marble pieces for Philips Electronics national advertising campaign and Tennessee marble for the restoration of the railway station in Salisbury, North Carolina.

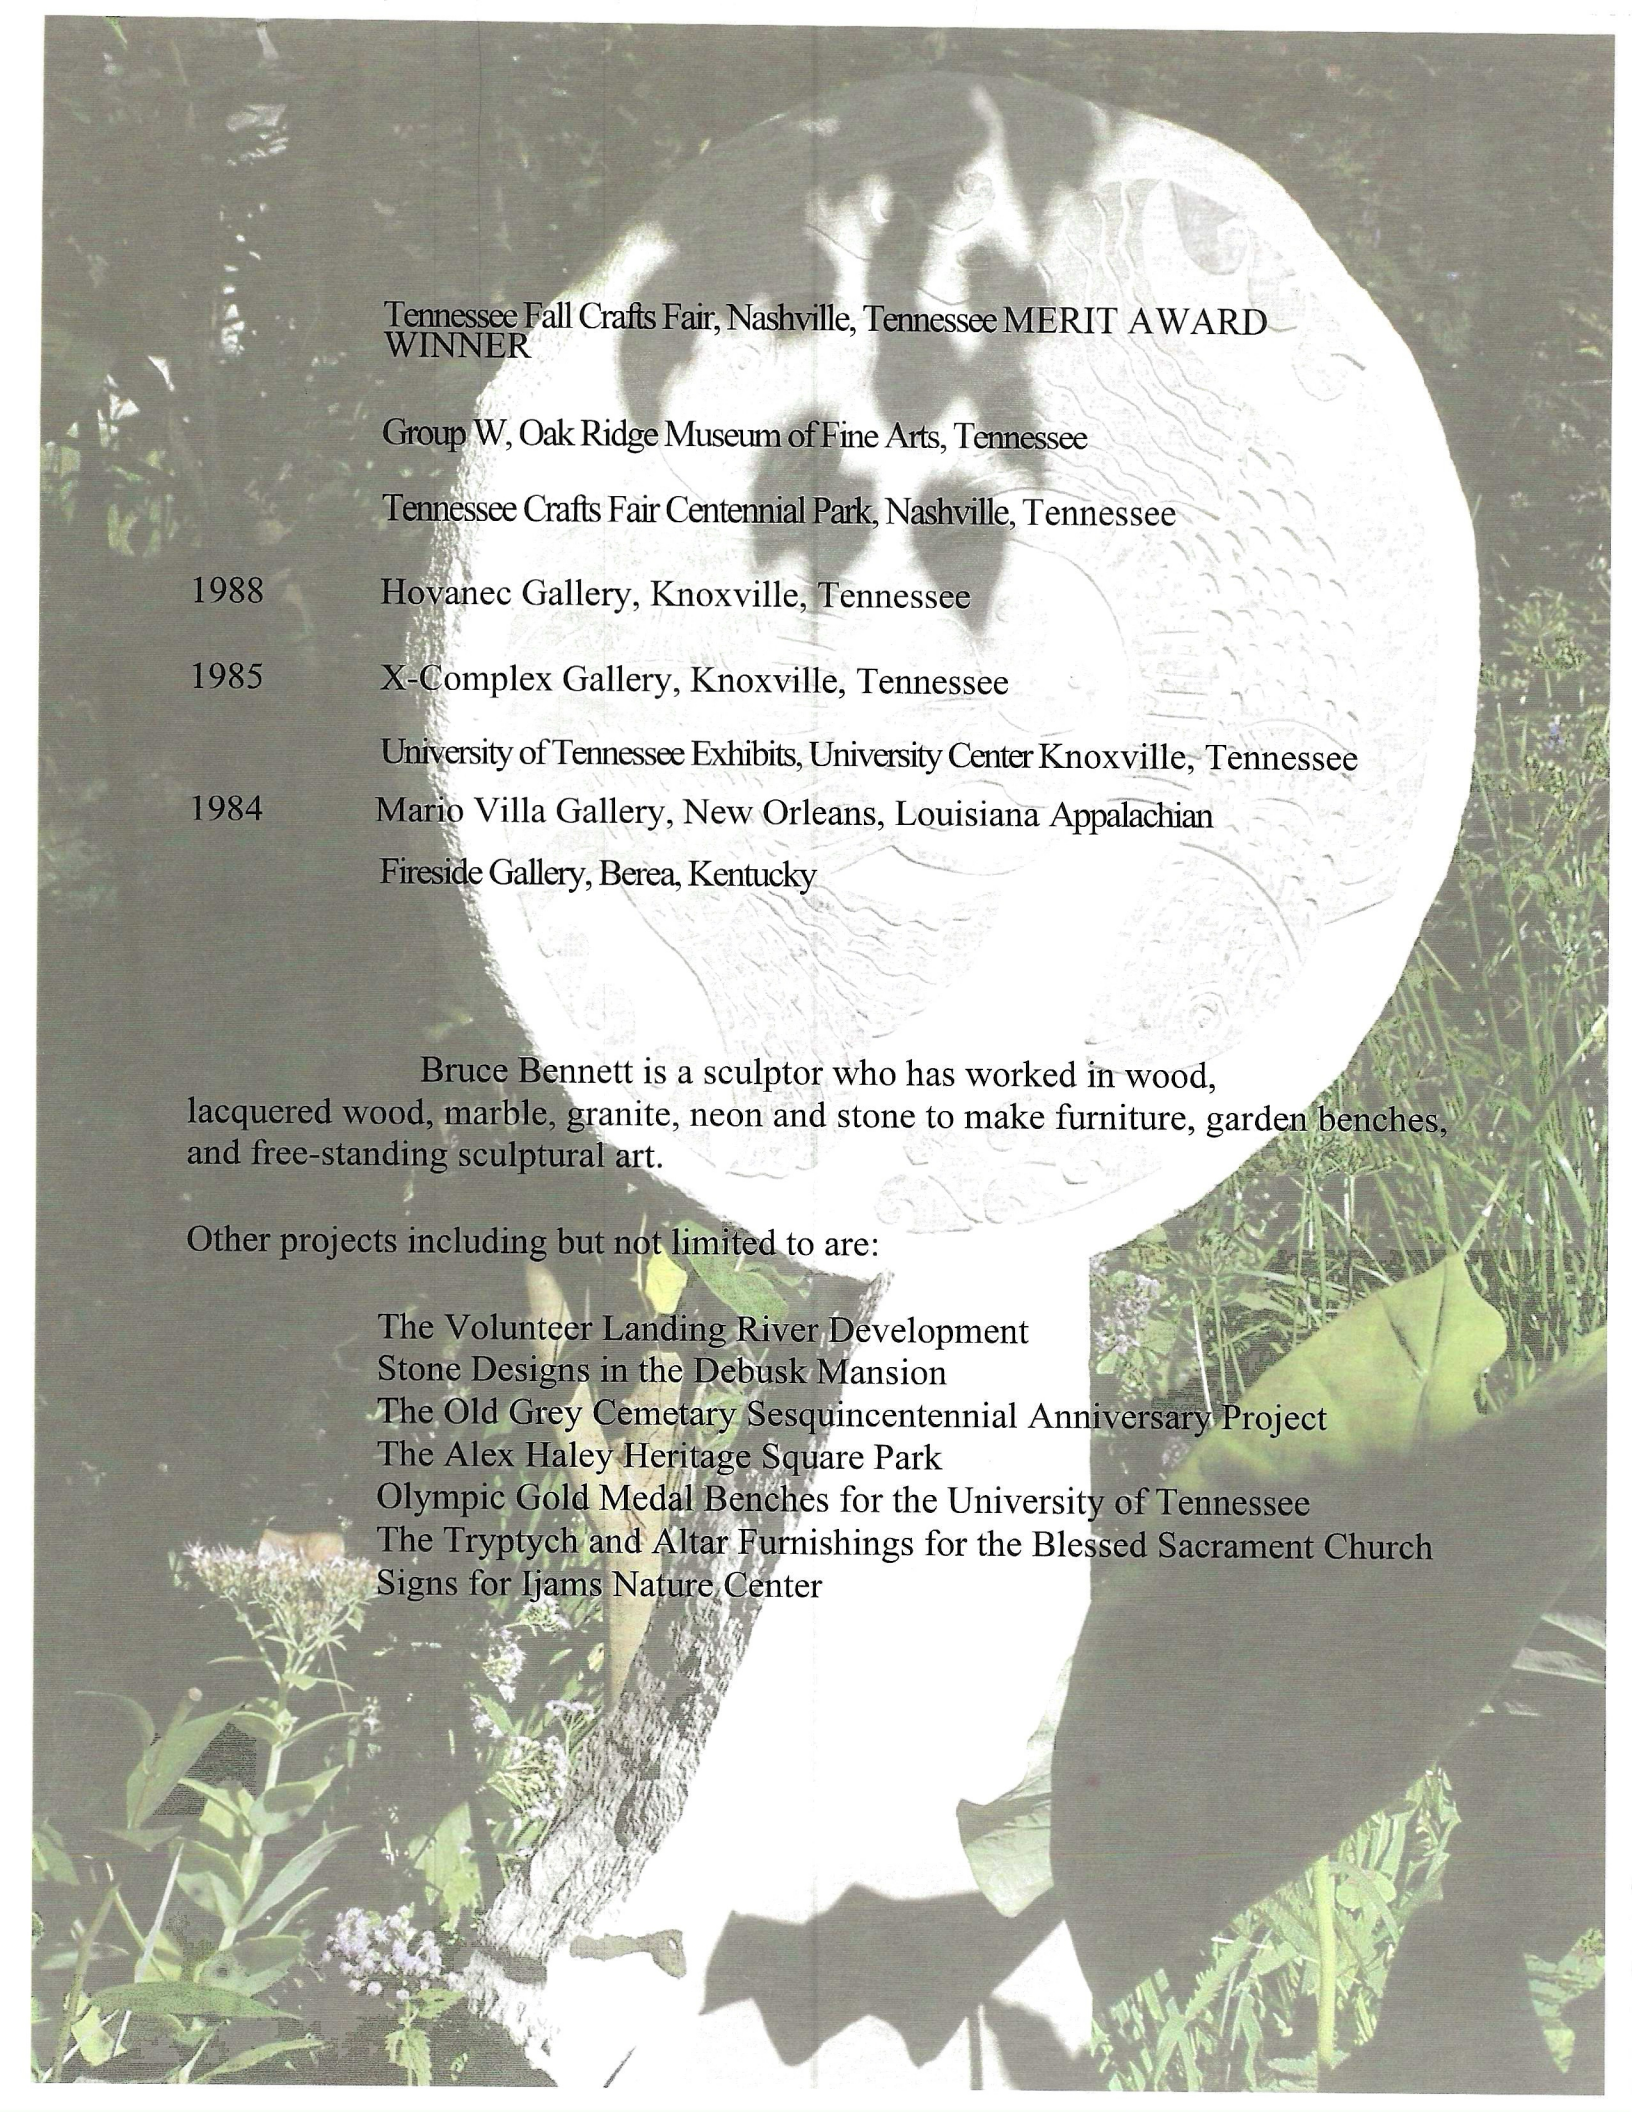

AWARD AND SELECTED EXHIBITIONS

Current Since 1988 Bruce Bennett has been providing custom architectural and sculptural pieces on commission.

1990 The Rose Center, Morristown, Tennessee

Permanent Collection, Knoxville Museum of Art,
Tennessee

1989 Alice Bingham Gallery, Memphis, Tennessee

Tennessee Fall Crafts Fair, Nashville, Tennessee MERIT AWARD
WINNER

Group W, Oak Ridge Museum of Fine Arts, Tennessee

Tennessee Crafts Fair Centennial Park, Nashville, Tennessee

1988 Hovanec Gallery, Knoxville, Tennessee

1985 X-Complex Gallery, Knoxville, Tennessee

University of Tennessee Exhibits, University Center Knoxville, Tennessee

1984 Mario Villa Gallery, New Orleans, Louisiana Appalachian

Fireside Gallery, Berea, Kentucky

Bruce Bennett is a sculptor who has worked in wood, lacquered wood, marble, granite, neon and stone to make furniture, garden benches, and free-standing sculptural art.

Other projects including but not limited to are:

The Volunteer Landing River Development

Stone Designs in the Debusk Mansion

The Old Grey Cemetery Sesquicentennial Anniversary Project

The Alex Haley Heritage Square Park

Olympic Gold Medal Benches for the University of Tennessee

The Tryptych and Altar Furnishings for the Blessed Sacrament Church

Signs for Ijams Nature Center